Introduction to Natural Healing Modalities Syllabus

This very empowering module will introduce you to a variety of complementary therapies or what we call natural healing modalities: homeopathy, herbs, essential oils, flower essences, acupressure, massage, TTouch, application, and iridology.

Part I:

a. Essential oils: what they are and how to use them, parts 1 & 2

b. Aromatherapy

c. Aromatherapy for dogs

d. Myotherapy with aromatherapy

e. Veterinary aromatherapy parts 1 & 2

f. Dispelling the myths

g. Diffusing essential oils for pets

h. Essential oils for fleas and ticks

Part II:

a. What are flower essences?

b. Flower essences 1 & 2

Part III:

a. Herbs for dogs

b. Herbs for animals

c. Tinctures and infusions

Part IV:

a. Homeopathy for acute care

b. Homeopathy for chronic care Part V:

a. An introduction to iridology
b. Manual therapies
c. Bodywork for animals: TTouch, acupressure, massage, reflexology
d. Iridology as analysis

Part VI:

a. Fears and phobias in canines
b. Natural vs. home remedies
c. First aid for dogs
d. Holistic first aid kit for animals

Part VII:

a. Embracing death’s journey
b. Quality of life and death
c. Hospice for animals
d. Dying with dignity
e. Euthanasia and hospice
f. Coping with the loss

Part VIII:

a. A natural approach to reducing stress in pets
b. Additional resources

Part IX:

a. Quiz